DAY 2: ARCTIC ADVENTURES—HUSKY SAFARI & SNOWMOBILING

Start your journey in the north by partaking in the classic arctic adventure - a husky safari. After breakfast, your guide will pick you up and take you to the basecamp trapper's station, where 90 Alaskan huskies eagerly await to take you on a thrilling sled ride under the stars and possibly the northern lights.* After a brief lesson from the lead musher, the reins are yours and the journey begins! With only the sound of the dogs and the sled scraping against the ice, this is sure to be an experience to remember. Back at the kennel, un-harness your hard-working dogs and enjoy a hot beverage and light snack at the trapper's station before returning to Longyearbyen around lunchtime.

Meet your guide at hotel at 5 pm. You will have time to sit down with the guide, talk about the coming trip, possible routes and needed equipment. After the meeting, had for further preparation and get warm clothing, like the overall and winter boots, and then head to the snowmobiles. Only the headlight from your snowmobile will be lighting the snow-covered mountainsides. Start slow to get used to driving the snowmobiles. After a short ride you arrive to Trapper's Station, where we are welcomed by eager Alaskan Huskies. We meet the dogs and learn more about trapper's history at Spitsbergen. Dinner is served inside the warm trapper's cabin where we share stories in an authentic atmosphere. Outside Longyearbyen there's no the light pollution, which give you a view to the polar sky and the stars sprinkled across. You might also experience the northern light dancing on the sky. Nights can be cold, but for that, we have warm expedition sleeping bags to keep you warm.

Accommodation in shared wooden teepee at Trapper's Station

Please note that the northern lights (aurora borealis) are a natural phenomenon and sightings cannot be guaranteed.*
